

ADVENTURES AND ACTIVITIES

DICOVER XINALANI SURROUNDINGS

Jungle Trek to Quimixto Waterfall

Duration 1,5 hr. - $15 per person, Min. 4 people. Guided Moderate hike.

The hike to the cascade is a short leisure walk across neighboring area Quimixto. Good hiking shoes are needed, but amphibian hiking sandals work best as you might be crossing the river a number of times. There is one or two small grades on the path but are no longer than 100 meters. Once at the cascade, you will enjoy a narrow but powerful water fall and you might swim into a majestic water area. Guided Easy hike. Preferably early in the morning.

Jungle Coastal Trek to Boca de Tomatlan

Duration 3 hr. - $25 per person, Min. 4 people. Guided Moderate hike.

A coastlining trek with breath-taking views of some of the most beautiful coves and small cliffs of the region. The trail will take you through a place called "Las Ánimas" (the souls) blessed with a beautiful wide beach and nice traditional sea-food Mexican restaurants. You can stop by the beautiful Playa el Caballo, and Playa Colomitos and enjoy a swim. Your trip will end at a small fishermen town called Boca de Tomatlan, where our panga will pick you up to bring you back to Xinalani.

Horse Back Riding

Experience the trek to the waterfall from another perspective, enjoy the scenery, while the horses find their way up and down the trails. You don't need to be an experienced rider, all levels are welcome. The horses are owned and operated by local indigenous community, you may walk to Quimixto town and buy your horse back riding pass, they will charge you $150 pesos.

BOAT TRIPS

Moonlight Panga Cruising

Duration 2 hr. - $430 per boat, includes a bottle of white wine. Boat capacity up to 8 people. (Under certain weather conditions only).

Take the adventure up to the next level, explore the coastline around Xinalani under the moonlight, and enjoy unique views of the Bay of Banderas by night. Your panga driver will take you to the Majestic Los Arcos, those huge stones that you see floating when you look North from the Yoga Space. On your way back, stop at Las Ánimas and take over the beach. An unforgettable group experience.

Xinalani RETREAT

Marietas Islands Snorkel Eco Discovery/ Whale Watching during season

Day Trip - $300 up to 4 people. Extra person: $75. Max. 10 people per boat. Picnic lunch is provided.

A 45 minute boat ride takes you from Xinalani to the Marietas Islands. A protected wildlife sanctuary and marine preserve, the waters of the Marietas Islands are home to a dazzling array of sea life.

On the ride out to the islands, giant manta rays, sea turtles, dolphins, and humpback whales (from Nov to March) are common sightings. The islands are also home to rare species of birds, such as the blue footed booby, found only in two places on earth: the Galapagos Islands and here at the Marietas. This is a place where you can relax at the beach and go snorkeling.

Yelapa Discovery

$145 up to 4 people. Extra person: $35. Max 10 people per boat. Drinks and Food not included.

Yelapa (Yeh-La-Pa) is a fisherman town south of the bay only accessible by boat, made famous in the 1960's when some stars of the music and movie industries 'discovered' it. Bob Dylan, David Crosby, Steven Stills, Graham Nash, Stevie Wonder, Elizabeth Taylor, Jack Nicholson, Peter Fonda, Dennis Hopper, Harry Hamlin and Xaviera Hollander (The Happy Hooker), have strolled its beach. Yelapa means 'gathering place' or 'meeting place'. A community of gringos live there year round, mixing up with locals in a laid back atmosphere. Let Marcos guide you through the real Yelapa, walk to the waterfall, enjoy a drink at the beach with a fresh made ceviche. On your way back, your panga will make a snorkeling halt at Majahuilas, a beautiful spot for marine exploration.

BE A CHEF FOR A DAY

Cooking Class

Cooking classes are based on the chef's daily menu. Most classes take place in the afternoon - $50 per person. Min 2 people.
